

Indicator (d)(5): Provide, for the State, the number and identity, of the schools that are secondary schools that are eligible for, but do not receive, Title I funds, that are identified as persistently lowest-achieving schools.

In Maryland, 8 secondary schools that are eligible for, but do not receive Title I funds, have been identified as persistently lowest-achieving schools. In addition, Maryland received a waiver by Assistant Secretary Melendez to include 3 Title I secondary schools in this list of schools as part of our Title I, 1003(g) School Improvement Grant. There are a total of 11 secondary schools in this list. All are located in either the Baltimore City Public School System or the Prince George's County Public School System.
